

LPC Family Advocate | Dallas, TX

Listen and mentor clients drafting a treatment plan that motivates them on path to healing and wellness.

Job Description

- Conduct intake assessments with new clients
- Assess therapeutic needs and provide therapeutic treatment in collaboration with a multidisciplinary team
- Work with the Chief Ministry Officer to develop an LPC internship program with adequate supervisor for follow up counseling as needed.
- Develop wellness plans and provide crisis intervention (counseling) and support to clients with access to appropriate resources needed for critical or daily functioning
- Provide client referrals for psychiatric evaluations and medication as needed
- Provide group or individual therapy
- Collaborate with ministry staff on effective communication techniques for clients and advise on best practices
- Follow TPCN Invoicing Process including client eligibility, UCI and session stamp creation and invoice submission
- Complete all necessary documentation intake assessment, case or progress notes and case closure notes in a timely manner according to protocol, best practices and quality assurance standards
- Schedule follow up calls with intake clients
- Confer with medical staff to discuss client concerns and/or possible ultrasound scheduling
- Maintain valid counseling licensure and a copy of current liability insurance
- Other duties as assigned.